

Van Rhee de's Hortus Malabaricus (Malabar garden) / with annotations and modern botanical nomenclature by K.S. Manilal.

Hendrik van Rhee de

Date: 2003

Books

About this work

Also known as

Hortus Indicus Malabaricus. English. 2003

Publication/Creation

Thiruvanthapuram : University of Kerala, 2003.

Physical description

12 volumes : illustrations, portrait ; 29 cm

Contributors

Hendrik van Rhee de

K. S. Manilal

Edition

English edition.

Notes

Research supported by the Department of Science & Technology Government of India, New Delhi

Bibliographic information

Includes bibliographical references and indexes.

Languages

English

Subjects

17th century

Botany | History

Plants | History

Malabar Coast (India)

Holdings

Vol.1 to vol.12.

Where to find it

Vol. 1

Location	Status
History of Medicine IDQ.23.AA6	Open shelves

Vol. 2

Location	Status
History of Medicine IDQ.23.AA6	Open shelves

Vol. 3

Location	Status
History of Medicine IDQ.23.AA6	Open shelves

Vol. 4

Location	Status
History of Medicine IDQ.23.AA6	Open shelves

Vol. 5

Location	Status
History of Medicine IDQ.23.AA6	Open shelves

+ 7 more

Permanent link

Page URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/zknfheed>

Copy URL

Identifiers

ISBN

8186397574

More works

Botany - History

17th century

Plants - history

From 2000s

Books

Hortus Malabaricus and the socio-cultural heritage of India / K.S. Manilal.

K. S. Manilal

Date: 2012

Pictures

Nux-vomica plant (Strychnos nux-vomica): flowering stem, sectioned fruit and floral segments. Coloured lithograph after M. A. Burnett, c. 1847.

Burnett, M. A., active 1850.

Date: [1847]

Pictures

Online

A houseleek (Sempervivum arachnoideum): flowering plant. Coloured engraving, c. 1788.

Date: [date of publication not identified]

This feature is new. Let us know if something doesn't look right.