About this work

Description

Paira Mall was employed as a collecting agent for the WHMM and between 1911 and 1921 he travelled widely on behalf of the Museum in India and the Far East, gathering an extensive collection of oriental manuscripts and objects

These diaries, ledgers and notebooks relate to his collecting trips and subsequent cataloguing of materials. See also WA/HMM/Ear/5 for Mall's correspondence with and reports to CJST, 1910-1924.
