Catalogue description

These files contain material relating to the work of Paira Mall as a collecting agent for the WHMM. Between 1911 and 1921 he travelled widely on behalf of the Museum in India and the Far East, gathering oriental manuscripts and objects. His correspondence with C.J.S. Thompson and the expenses accounts he submitted help to provide a detailed picture of his travels.

File arrangement

CO/Ear/560–568 appear to be Thompson's files including carbons of his letters to Paira Mall and the originals of Mall's replies. CO/Ear/569 includes signed originals of Thompson's letters to Mall (likely Mall's side of the correspondence, added later). CO/Ear/570–574 are files of Mall's expenses accounts.

CO/Ear/560 also includes a later (c.1980s) list of the contents of the files, including a geographical index of places mentioned in the correspondence.
